

In his first live public show since before the pandemic, Daniel will be telling stories from his time during quarantine through the songs he loves.

Selections originated by artists like Blossom Dearie, the Bee Gees, and Dua Lipa will be featured, and the vibe will be feel-good and happy.

As times continue to be tough, we need to relax, smile, laugh, and share music together, so join us for a beautiful New York City evening!

ID and VACCINATION ARE REQUIRED for entry into Pangea.

Also, Pangea separately offers fabulous cocktails and amazing food for its audience. Doors open at 6.
